WHEELING, MARCH 20, 1800. CITIZEN Train has our best wishes for a pleasant journey around the world and a safe return. He is a fine specimen of the harmless crank. So far as the House tariff bill has been outlined it displays a critical care of those industries most in need of a protective tariff. A noticeable effort to benefit the agricultural industry runs through the measure.

Now it is City Auditor Whiteside, o Chattanooga, who is absent and unac-counted for, $688,250 of the public funds being gone with him. When we get to managing local affairs better a thing of this kind will be impossible without the collusion of half a dozen men.

A CINCINNATI man pointed a revolver at his wife in sport, fired and brought down his game. Fortunately for both o them, the ball was of raw cotton, but even that went hard enough to tear away part of the scalp. The husband was sur prised to find it was loaded at all.

Council will naturally hesitate to us against any legitimate enterprise any power that it may have, but unless the lectrical power house can be conducted so as not to be a nuisance to the neigh low it to continue to unsettle things and nerves in its vicinity. It is preferable that the company shall itself abate the nuisance, and this it seems to be making an effort to do.

In New York a very commendabl theatre practice is coming into vogue. When "chappies" and other persons o more tongue than consideration for oth ers talk loud enough to drown the stage there is a round of well regulated hisses, the effect of which is said to be all that could be desired. Of course nobody ever but if anybody were to try this style of amusing himself the hiss might bring

The duty of two and one-tenth cents per pound on tin plate, as proposed in the bill of the Ways and Means Committe, will give to America enterprise an op portunity to supply the American markets, which should have been done long since. If anybody seriously believes that this rate of duty will establish an American monopoly, all he has to do is to pro vide the necessary outfit and embark in the business. This is the kind of monopoly a protective tariff establishes.

corner of Broadway and Liberty street brought $544,500, being something over $182 a square foot. This, the Tribune says, is the highest price ever paid for I on Manhattan Island, the ground for the Equitable building alone except ed, and that cost $200 a foot. The lot which has just brought $514,500 was bought twenty years ago for $140,000. No wonderthat fortunes have been made in New York by persons who had the patience and strength to hold on.

The Lawrers Should Have Struck An instructive feature of the investiration of the sheriff's office in New York is that the lawyers who did business cheerfully, as it seems, to the fleecing of their clients. In a sense this may have been necessary to the prompt transac tion of their clients' business, but would not an assault in force on the sheriff and his officers have yielded a better result?

If the bar had combined to bring the gouging practices to the attention of the courts and the Legislature there would have been such a pressure as the sheriff and those who were with him could not have resisted. It is possible that some of the lawyers, those of the lowest grade, shared in the plunder, although nothing of this kind has come out in the investisaid to be one of the best musicians in the Northwest, who had held an important local office, was popular and doing well in his practice, needed som money for a promising speculation. He was about to buy some land which he thought was already sold to parties with whom he had been in treaty.

He needed ready money and happene to have in hand money collected for clients. In that evil hour he borrower that money, without giving his clients a chance to say no. He was disappointed in his land transaction, grew desperate and drank too much, then gambled most of the money away. He fled from his home and wandered about a miserable man. Now he has returned to take his punishment. During his absence his child sickened and died of grief. Next his wife was prostrated. This is not the story of one of the worst of men. Its value is that it is the story of a man of generally correct life wrong to anybody, yet grievously wrong ing those who had confided in him and wrecking his life. These true stories hould not be wasted on young men for whom the sun is just rising.

Modern Discoveries:

What Bell and Edison are to the telephone and electricity, says the Pittsburg News, Dr. Franklin Miles, the well-known specialist in nervous discases, is to the nervous system and nerve flued. Among his numerous discoveries his Restorative Nervine is undoubtedly one of the greatest. It is unsurpassed in nervousness, dyspepsia, headache, epilepsy, neuralgia, backache, melancholly, sleeplessness, change of life, etc. Free trial bottles of it may be had of the Logan Drug Co., Druggiets, and also Dr. Miles' new book on "New and Startling Facts" for the afflicted. Every one should read this very interesting, instructive, and finely illustrated beautiful process. The oldest living college graduate in the United States has come to the front. He is Amos F. Parker, who is ninety-eight years of age, and was graduated from the University of Vermont in 1813. Prof. J. D. To travel into the mystic region of ancient Expyt one must journey not 6,000 miles, but 5,000 or 6,000 years. He must in this case not only go up the Nile, but ascend the great river of Time, and trace the stream of history to its source. People are accustomed to think of the days of the Casars, Horace, Herodotus and Cicero as ancient days, but Egypt was a land of antiquity to the Greeks and Romans. Syria is a creation of vesterday compared with the land of the Pharoahs. Innumerable dynasties had run their course when Moses received his education at the court of Rameses, and the Pyramide were the wonders of the world when Alexander landed in Egypt.

Where to place the initial period of Egyptian history is a difficult question which will probably puzzle students until the end of the world. To find the far distant epoch when the first monarchy was founded would take them back over 5,000 years.

There is a gap of 4,700 between the two principal dynasties of ancient Egypt, and the gigantic works of art, the Sphinxes, still existing, belong to the prehistoric age. These lost ages possessed all the arts and sciences carried on in later generations, and a history compared with which that of all other pices of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, will be held in the Chapline firet M.
